President's Message Of Welcome

It is with a great deal of pride that the Thoroughbreds welcome you all to our show this evening. We feel this pride first of all because we can now present ourselves to you as the International Chorus Champions of our great barbershop Society. This feat has taken the name of Louisville throughout the length and breadth of the North American continent through the medium of our 600 chapters, through the nationwide distribution of our recordings, and the travels of the chorus and chapter quartets which have taken us literally thousands of miles from Philadelphia in the East to Kansas City in the West and from Chicago in the North to Dallas in the South.

Secondly, we feel tremendously proud to be one of the very first local organizations to utilize this great, new, and beautifully appointed facility, the Brown Theater. This auditorium with its perfect acoustics and visibility will be an integral part of the Thoroughbred's future plans. Due to the rules of our Society we, as International Champions, are barred from all competition until the Fall of 1964. During this period we have ambitious production plans numbering two shows per year. These performances this evening represent the second effort of 1962, the first being the highly successful "They're Off and Singing" at the Memorial Auditorium last March 30.

Lastly, we feel particularly proud that through the many local appearances of our chorus and quartets, the people of Louisville have accepted us and our music into all phases of their cultural activities. Your tremendous response to our appearance on the last WHAS Crusade For Children convinces us that you have recognized our style of harmony as a true musical art form, and we pledge to always honor that trust.

Thanks again for your continued patronage, and it is our sincere hope that you enjoy our production this evening. May we urge any of you so inclined to attend one or more of our weekly meetings and become better acquainted with the men you see on our stage tonight. We assure you they are the finest of gentlemen whose greatest talents are the ability to sincerely like people, close harmony, and dedication to their chosen hobby.

Yours in Harmony,

Jim Miller, President

ED HACKETT

"Mr. Barbershopper", as he is affectionately known by many of his Barbershopping friends, has actively participated in almost every phase of this great hobby. He has coached many quartets and choruses many of which have ranked high and a great majority emerging as champions in society sponsored competition. He is certified in two categories as a society judge. He is a past International Board Member, a past district president, a past chapter president and has held many other high offices in all levels of Barbershopping. He was a very important figure as chorus coach in the Thoroughbreds drive to the International Championship. Ed also has had a great deal to do with the production of our show this evening. Our hats are off to a grand Barbershopper and a true friend.

OUR SINCERE APPRECIATION

To those who have helped in any way to make our show a success we express our gratitude and sincere appreciation. Our special thanks to the advertisers and to those who have found their way to the presentation of Barbershop Harmony Time.

Without the help of such fine Barbershop enthusiasts our printed program and production would not have been possible. Thanks again to everyone and we hope that you enjoy the performance this evening.

The Melodears, one of the few ladies Barbershop quartets in the Louisville area, were organized in May of 1960. They are known to many of their friends as "The Sweethearts of the Thoroughbreds". We know you will enjoy them when you hear Barbershopping with the feminine touch this evening.
